MADRID ABIERTO 2010
4 - 28 February, 2010
<http://www.madridabierto.com>

This sixth edition of MADRID ABIERTO, directed by Jorge Díez and curated by Cecilia Andersson, emphasizes the collaborative spirit of certain artistic practices carried out in public spaces. An array of different dynamics have been put to work in order to explore ways in which such practices can affect people and policies in specific locations. The projects count on the involvement by a wide range of professionals, among them gardeners, actors, social workers, geologists, programmers, architects and urban developers.

Selected from over 580 proposals presented to the international open call, this edition presents the following works: Time Notes, by Gustavo Romano (Buenos Aires, 1958), Torre, by Pablo Valbuena, (Madrid, 1978), Unofficial tourism, by Iñaki Larrimbe (Vitoria, 1967), Huert-O-bus, by Lisa Cheung (Hong Kong, 1969), Ghostown, by Laurence Bonvin (Sierre, Switzerland, 1967), Una Casa Digestiva Para Lavapiés, by Josep-Maria Martín (Ceuta, 1961), Campo AA-Madrid, by Adaptive Actions, Hucha de deseos: ¡Todos somos un barrio, movilizate! by Susanne Bosch (Wesel, Germany, 1967), Bajar al subterráneo recién excavado, by Lara Almarcegui, (Zaragoza, 1972) and Vallecas Abierto: ¿Cómo nos van a ayudar con su arte?, by Teddy Cruz (Guatemala, 1962) with M7Red and Iago Carro (Buenos Aires, Argentina).

Hucha de Deseos: We are the neighbourhood, Act! since 12 November 2010

All wishes can be read at and more images/film been reviewed on <http://huchadedeseos.wordpress.com>.
